

"SAY MAN, WHY did the chicken cross the road?" Its scenes like this and lines like those that will carry you back to the 1920's at the junior class performance of an old fashioned minstrel show at Salem Central High School Friday night. As endmen in the stunts will be Allan Wels, in the derby, and Leo Schneider.

Salem HS Juniors to Recall Gay 1920s at Friday Minstrel Show

The Charleston, the soft shoe, the antics of the roaring 20's.

All these will be recalled Friday when the junior class of Salem Central High School presents a review of the old fashioned minstrel shows of the gay and flippant 1920's. The show will be at 8 p.m. in the auditorium at Central High School.

A CAST OF 17 and the junior chorus and some local adult musicians will perform. Pantomimes of such stars as Al Jolson and Sarah Vaughn will be presented.

The show is directed by Malcolm Alby, Ruth Leetfink, Mrs. Jane Palumbo and John Fisher who promise a review that all will remember. A matinee is planned for 2 p.m. Friday with the main performance for the public in the evening.

Cast in the show are Jeanne Anderson, Leilani Ginder, Georgia Kulesch, Betty Rau, Elaine Kohlmann, Brenda Gooch, Marilyn Dolezal, Sheila Ingram, Gene Schulz, Fred Lentz, Len Krawczyk, Dick Neu, Gary Dix, Dave Erickson, Leo Schneider and Alan Wels. Supporting them will be local adults and the junior chorus.

HS Students' Essays Will Aid School Board In Growth Problems

"What would you do if you were on the school board?"

That's the question students at Antioch Township High School will be thinking about over the Christmas holidays as they prepare essays to help the school board solve its growth problems.

The idea to have the students present solutions to the problems they will be facing comes from the Citizens Advisory Council which is attempting to help the school board make its planning. The council feels that since the students will be living closest to the growth, they might have good ideas about which problems need attention first and how to go about it.

CASH PRIZES will be awarded to the three best students in each class, a total of 12 winners. The four best essays will be published in The Antioch News next January.

The problems the students will be writing about will be the crowded conditions at the school from now until a new building can be erected in at least two years. Even if construction could start in 1959, it would be two years before students could use it. There will be more than 250 students above capacity in the present building by that time.

Judges will be two faculty members, two school board members and two advisory council members. They will grade the papers 60 per cent on ingeniousness of the solutions presented and 40 per cent on how it is said. Prizes will be $5 for the winner in each class, $3 for second place and $2 for the third place.

Girl Dies After Heart Surgery

Burial is scheduled in Arkansas today for Una Mae Stovall, 17, an Antioch girl who underwent a rare heart operation in Chicago last Monday. She died just three hours after the operation.

An urgent plea for blood last week in the Antioch News brought a response which greatly gratified her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Stovall. More than enough was received to replace that taken during the operation, Mrs. Stovall said. The need was for rare O Negative type blood which is estimated to be common to only six per cent of the population.

The girl had been in the hospital since July in preparation for the operation, her parents said. If successful, doctor told them they felt the girl would be well on her way to a normal life.

On Aug. 8, 1924, the Navy landed an airship on one of its ships for the first time, when the dirigible USS Shenandoah tied up to a mooring mast mounted on the USS Patoka.

Moose Again to Sponsor Christmas Home Decorating

The annual Christmas decorating contest in the Antioch township has been announced by the Civic Affairs Committees, Loyal Order of the Moose and Women of the Moose.

Mrs. Richard Stroner, who is in charge of the contest, said that as in former years, judging will be automatic for homes in the village of Antioch. Those in the township should send cards to Mrs. Stroner telling her that they would like their homes judged. Send cards to: PO Box 552, Antioch or phone Antioch 1139.

Judges for the contest this year are Murrill Cunningham, president of the Village Board; Mrs. Clarence Olson, president of the Antioch Woman's Club; Joseph Patrovsky, president of the Lions Club. Judging will be at 7 p.m. Dec. 28.

Six prizes will be awarded, three Pickard China plates hand painted by Mrs. Elsie Hays, and three honorable mention ribbons. Prizes are on display in the window of the Antioch News.

As in past years, the judging will be all open category, Mrs. Stroner said. Decorations outside of town will be competing with decorations in town also.

Only rules are that decorations must be all visible from the street. Originality always is a factor in selecting winners, Mrs. Stroner said.

Late Shopping Hours To Begin Monday

Late shopping hours for most merchant members of the Chamber of Commerce will begin next Monday night when stores will stay open until 9 p.m.

Although it is up to each store owner to set his own hours, the Chamber has planned the late hours schedule in its Christmas promotion plans. The schedule will extend until Christmas.

Here's One Who Chose His Number

Peter B. Zalatoris of Antioch is proud of his birthday and wants everyone to know it. So he is displaying it on his new license plates. The number 189081 designates 1890, 6/1.

Three Schools To Get Money From Military

Three area schools have been certified to receive $11,833.75 in reimbursements for attendance of students caused by the location of military encampments or hospitals nearby.

Lake Villa school district No. 41 is to receive the major portion of the money, $6,514.37. Antioch Grade School District 34 is to receive $4,193.82 and Antioch Township High School District 117 is to get $1,125.56.

The claim, certified by Vernon L. Nickell, superintendent of public instruction, cover the school year ending June 30, 1958.

Lake County schools received $691,317.52 for the greatest amount of any county in the report. More than $1,636,692.69 was paid statewide.

Lake Villa, AHS Each Get $12,000 Tuition Refunds

Lake Villa School District No. 41 and Antioch High School District No. 117 each have been allotted more than $12,000 for tuition for students attending these districts from orphanages and homes.

Lake Villa is to receive $12,934.87 and Antioch $12,189.09. Both payments are for students attending from the Allendale School for Boys and the Central Baptist Children's Home, both in Lake Villa.

The money covers expenses for the school year ending June 30, 1958. Twenty-six counties were included in the payments with Lake County receiving $81,673.76, more than any county outside Cook.

The tabulations and report were released by Vernon L. Nickell, superintendent of public instruction.

Sales Tax Totals Again Show Antioch Ahead in Area

Antioch again topped the list of sales tax collections for most Lake Co. towns for the month of September, the secretary of state has reported.

The total returned to Antioch for collections during September was $4,100.93. Lake Villa was down a little from the previous month to $352.66.

OTHER TOWNS in the county of greater population which Antioch outdistanced in sales were Grayslake, $2,445.59; and Fox Lake $3,512.55.

Towns ahead of Antioch were: Zion, $4,956.58 and Libertyville, $6,486.97.

Increase Of $10 Million Noted Since Last Year

Taxpayers in Lake Villa Township will pay taxes on a total assessed valuation of $27,802,620 this year. The figure is up from $18 million in 1957.

The actual valuation figures, says county assessor Robert Jasper, is $17,586,478 but the additional $10 million added on for tax purposes is the equalization factor which puts all property in the county on the same valuation rate.

Santa Returns, Kids, Here 'Til Christmas

Santa Claus will return to Antioch for more visits with the area kids and he'll be here every day till Christmas.

He'll be at the Ace Hardware, Rt. 59 and 173 and as far as is known, this will be his only other area visit until he delivers presents Christmas Eve.

Because he has such a full schedule, Santa has set aside three hours each night, 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. to see children. But on the weekends, youngsters can talk to him from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sundays. The oldman will give a free lollipop and balloon to the kids who visit him.

Board Rejects Drivein Movie Zoning Bid

A drive-in theatre still might be built here as soon as the planners decide what to do about a decision of the County Board of Supervisors in denying them a request for a zone change to permit its construction.

The decision to not allow rezoning 12 acres of land at Grass Lake Rd. and Rt. 59 was reached Tuesday by the board at Waukegan. Petitioning for the change was Peder C. Toft, Antioch, who planned to sell the land to the Lakes Theatre Corp.

THERE IS no need for such a type of business as an outdoor theatre, the board said in its resolution, and it would create undue traffic hazards on the highways if it was built.

Also, it added, the majority of the residents of the area are opposed to its building. Richard A. Meyers, manager of the Lakes Theatre in Antioch, said that he was "very much disappointed over the fact that so many persons opposed the program." He called the opposition "a severe setback" for progress in a community.

THE COMPANY will consider an appeal of the Board of Supervisors' decision but said that "the public can be assured that we will continue to promote Antioch as Lake County's leading community—and in so doing will provide this area with the (continued on page 4)

THE LAKE VILLA figure compares with an equalized valuation for Antioch Township of $36 million.

Complete property descriptions for all assessed land in Lake Villa Township will be published next week as part of the Antioch News. The special legal section will be almost 12 pages. The listing will carry the revised valuation for every parcel in the township.

Assessment total for the county is growing rapidly Jasper said and now totals $877 million. It is estimated that the complete 1958 figure will go over $880 million, Jasper said.

LAKE VILLA Township is one that has shown one of the more rapid growths in the county in the past few years. For example, the 1957 tax figure was $18 million as compared to the Antioch valuation of $32 million. While Antioch property grew $4 million in the year, Lake Villa grew $10 million.

The final assessed figure for every township is equalized to make a piece of property built in the south part, for example, taxed at the same rate as a similar piece of property in the northern section of the county.

The difference in original valuations comes from the individual assessors and have to be equalized by his office. The system works on a system of averages and when there is a lower assessment average, then the equalization must be higher, Jasper said.

Assessor for Lake Villa Township is Del Black.

Lions Club Elects, Will Install New Officers On Jan. 12

Installation of officers in the Antioch Lions' Club will be Jan. 12 after a full slate was elected at Monday's meeting at Smart's Country House.

Joseph Patrovsky Jr. was named president and helping him run the club next year will be: K. Dietrick, first vice president; Richard Ripley, second vice president; Preston Reckers, Jr., third vice president; Jack Fields secretary; Dr. Albert Bucar, treasurer; and Ralph Gressens, Lion tamer. Tail twister will be Richard Harland.

THE GROUP also named Don Francisco, Sr., and Louis Mowen for one year terms to the board of directors and Morris Pickus and Myrus Nelson for two year terms.

A new member also was inducted at the meeting. He is Wendell Studebaker.

IN COMES JOLLY old St. Nick and it's Christmas season again in the lakes region. Above, Santa gives more than 100 kids a wave as he steps from Bill Horton's airplane Saturday morning. The plane had just brought him in from the North Pole after being asked to come here by the Chamber of Commerce. After a 25-car motorcade into town, Santa spent the rest of the day at the Rescue Squad building where he talked to more than 450 kids. At left, 3-year-old Jimmy Heidner, Lindenhurst, is one of the first to get a box of candy and advice from Santa. The kids also were treated to free movies and music on the streets as a promotion of Antioch's Chamber of Commerce.

Santa Thinks Antioch Kids Among 'Best in the World'

By Noel Duerden

"I believe the kids who live in this area are some of the best in the world."

That's what Santa told me Saturday, kids, on his first visit here in 1958. For years I have been believing what Santa says so I have no reason to question him now.

IT WAS A job to get an interview with this famous visitor to Antioch and I had to ask questions when I could and piece this story together. I got some questions in on the ride here from Bill Horton's airfield. Then squeezed in some more later in the afternoon when the steady stream of young visitors to the Rescue Squad building gave him a slight rest.

Santa recalled that last year here one young boy asked for everything in the book. When they finished talking, the young fellow settled for just a single toy. This year, the same boy wanted everything again.

WHAT'S POPULAR with kids this year? The fellow who ought to know after five and a half hours talking to them, said that scientific toys, do-it-yourself toys and dolls lead by far in popularity. Dolls are the only one item of the three that repeats in preference year after year though, he said.

Probably no man has ever had the influence with kids that Santa Claus has. There's a secret to this, the old gent said.

You have to reason with them in their own language. Then suggest what they should do and reward them for doing right."

"Take the little fellow who was skeptical of me. 'Your beard isn't real is it Santa' he asked. I just told him the truth because you can't lie to kids and still win their faith," Santa added. "When he left, I think he believed more in Santa than before."

BUT WHAT MAKES Santa believe the kids here are some of the best in the world? It's because they all behaved so nice in such cold weather Saturday for one reason. And because they all remembered to ask for something for someone else.

As Mr. Claus stretched his legs after talking to more than 450 children, he asked me to be sure to tell (continued on page 8)

Support Needed For The Scouts

It would seem that residents of a town would wholeheartedly support any event or group that carries that town's name throughout the countryside.

Not so here in Antioch. The case in question is the amateur basketball team which carries the name Antioch throughout Lake and McHenry counties. At least the team has carried the name through the area. This may be coming to an end.

According to Coach Frank Balistreri, the Scouts are broke financially and a game Wednesday night at the high school gym may have been the crowning blow. Tonight the Scouts are to play at Palatine but return here Monday for another league game. It could be their last.

Here is a group of 10 young men from the area that for the love of playing basketball, have organized a team to compete in what is probably one of the fastest leagues in the midwest. Out of necessity the team adopted the name Antioch as a home monicker. Never to make money, but just to play ball, they solicited a group of merchants in the town who agreed to underwrite the expenses. Now apparently the businessmen have forgotten about the team. No one goes out to see the games.....it seems no one gives a hoot.

Balistreri says that the team will need about $200 to complete the season. The money is used only for payment of officials and rental of the gym. The players take care of their own travel expenses.

The News does not like to present a problem situation without a possible solution. In this case, we propose a public subscription drive to help the team—which certainly gives an image of our town. This is the season of giving and the News will start off the contributions with $5 and will serve as collection point for the team. We'll do all the bookkeeping and also be on the sidelines to cheer on our Antioch Scouts.

What Does GOP Do After Winning Election?— Work for Better Govt.

Having won the November elections, where do Lake County Republicans go from here?

That was the question last weekend at a workshop held at the home of State Rep. William J. Murphy at Petite Lake. Attending were about 25 GOP stalwarts who believe that it is best to have "Education for Action."

THE WORKSHOP plan is conducted by a state GOP organization which feels its job is to educate and inform the whole mass of people to enable them to think for themselves and create interest to preserve peace and order and to create a more responsible two party system.

To complain about party politics, to ignore it or despise it does a great deal more harm than good, the workshop people insist. Thus they conduct the sessions in order to get better candidates from among the Republicans.

THE ANTIOCH session was conducted by Mrs. Botsford Young, Lake Bluff, who is district leader and state board member of the Republican Workshops, Inc. Mrs. Francis Burke, Antioch, a vice president of the North Lake County district assisted along with Mrs. Rober Badger, Libertyville, as discussion leader.

Attending were a number of county officials including Sheriff Norris Froelich, Probate Judge Thomas Moran, County Supt. of Schools William Petty and Robert J.

A TWO-PIECE sleeper, developed especially for energetic youngsters from six months to six years who throw their blankets off during the night, is now being offered in stores. Called "Wear-A-Blanket", it is designed to completely cover the child when asleep in any position, and provide blanket warmth without the weight of loosened blankets.

A brief sketch also was given which included Mrs. Clyde Queen, Antioch; Mrs. Telford Gorr, Avon Township, and Mrs. Burke.

Exhibit Includes Nation's Outstanding Collection of Gems

WASHINGTON — "Gems and Minerals," the most recent exhibit hall to be modernized by the Smithsonian Institution, includes the most extensive collection of gems on display in this country, and a large and representative sampling of specimens from the nation's mineral collection which is the world's finest.

Nearly every variety of gem is represented. Many are of enormous size. Among them are a 316-carat star sapphire, a 66-carat alexandrite, and a 310-carat peridot. The last two are the largest gems ever cut from these stones. Also displayed is the Shephard diamond, a very rare flawless canary-yellow gem weighing 18.3 carats.

Among the gems is a set of pearls consisting of a necklace, choker, and earrings given by the Imam of Muscat to the U. S. Government. Also shown are the original gold nugget which set off the California gold rush, discovered at Sutter's Mill in 1848 by James Marshall, and the world's largest flawless crystal ball, a perfect sphere almost 12 inches in diameter, weighing 106½ pounds.

The mineral section contains examples of all the principal species of minerals, selected and lighted to make a vivid display of their natural beauty and color. Their forms, particularly those of the crystal clusters, are suggestive of modern sculpture. Featured among them is a large greenish specimen of smithsonite, a carbonate of zinc named for its discoverer, James Smithson, the Englishman who founded the Smithsonian.

A recent issue of the Congressional Record lists 2,422 farming firms or individual farmers who received $10,000 or more in 1957 for not planting crops on land they put into a government's acreage reserve program. Top single payment was $332,000.

DEAR EDITOR Your Letters

Reader Hates Wednesday Closing

Dear Editor:
I'm writing to put in my two cents worth. I enjoy your paper very much, now. It's a real paper and worth the time to read from cover to cover. There's one thing missing so please put it back—"Strength For The Day."

I'm glad you wrote about the Antioch merchants. It's about time some one spoke up. That idea of some of the stores being closed on Wednesday is poor thinking. For that reason I know they have lost trade.

That was my two cents.
Marian Prange

Between 1948 and 1957, the Department of Agriculture finds, expenditures for food per person rose 18 per cent. By way of comparison, per capita disposable income increased more than twice as much—38 per cent—in the same period.

Wants Animal Warden Info

Dear Editor:
We see the Lake County Animal Warden go by often—but do not know the regulations regarding dogs and other pets in the unincorporated areas of the county. So when we see the warden go by we quickly see if our pet is safely inside, as do many others.

Wouldn't it be a good idea as well as a public service to print such information in the Antioch News?

When the animal warden was appointed there was an article in the paper stating who he was and that he would patrol Lake county—but that was all.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: A story on the warden is coming up soon, thanks to your request.)

Miss Aileen Bridget Fosh

tary service in the Army last month.

Miss Fosh came to the United States just a year ago, spending her first Christmas with the Biel family, and she travels whenever circumstances permit. She has toured mostly in the eastern part of the country, and is now working in Evanston as a stenographer until her resources are up to the traveling point again.

The couple is planning a June wedding, which will be in England.

Garden Club to Make Christmas Decorations at Friday Meeting

In making the Christmas decorations, the members will be trying to use the hints gained Monday when they visited the Honey Bear Farm for a lecture and demonstration by Mrs. Ruth Kistner. ## ATHS Class Of 1928-29 Reunite

Thirty long years and a lot of changes are noted.

That's how long it has been since a group of Antioch residents graduated from the high school—but they got together last weekend.

The occasion was a combined class reunion of the classes of 1928 and 1929. Almost 50 per cent representation from both classes made it a highly successful event says Mrs. Edna Radke, head of the reunion committee.

THREE TEACHERS from those old school days were present also including Miss Alice Smith, still a resident of Antioch. Now retired, she taught history and Latin then, but still finds time to tutor some present day students.

Also present were L. R. "Rip" Watson, one of the coaches of athletics then and now a teacher at Leyden Township high school. Dr. Gerald Reed, now of Oshkosh State Teachers College, raised his hand when the roll was called.

The members of the old class were read a telegram from L. O. Bright, then principal and now living in Dade Park, Fla.

In charge of the preparations for the reunion were Howard Gaston, class of 1928 and Louise Murrie, Louis Galiger, class of 1929. Homer LaPlant was toastmaster.

Board Rejects....

finest in motion picture entertainment."

Also denied by the board Tuesday was a request of Mrs. Charles Ackerman to permit rezoning so that she could build a private club on her property on a peninsula at Grass Lake.

The board felt that the topography of the tract was not suitable for a club and additional traffic on roads and waters in the area would be a hazard. Also a majority of the neighbors are opposed.

ALMOST 100 residents of the area appeared here last month to protest the petition to the zoning board.

However the Supervisors did grant a special permit to the California Subdivision to build a community center on Lake Marie. The permit has 10 restrictions including one that specified plenty of parking should be provided and fire protection equipment should be installed.

The permit is valid for one year and may be renewed if the building meets inspection requirements.

Cermak Triplets Note First Birthday; Lots of Changes In Household in Past Year

A great many changes have been made in the Charles J. Cermak home in Antioch in the past year. Most of them of course have been to triplets Joe, Ann and Mary, who celebrated their first birthday Friday—but some have been made in the Cermak's lives.

Most notable has been the addition of a bedroom, a newer and bigger car and a new hot water heater.

THE TRIPLETS, who a year ago were a great surprise to the doctors, the hospital, and the parents, celebrated their first anniversary with a single cake with three candles, one each.

Initials of the three, J-A-M, indicate the predicament they put the Cermaks into in the past year. But Joseph, Ann and Mary are a welcome addition to the family, the Antioch realtor said.

Joe, born first, weighed only three pounds, two ounces at birth, the lightest of the three. Sister Ann weighed in at three pounds, three ounces and the last one born, Mary, scaled almost 3 pounds, nine ounces. Now they weigh: Joe, 20 pounds six ounces; Ann, 19 pounds and Mary, 20 pounds, eight ounces.

MRS. CERMAK, a former nurse at St. Therese hospital in Waukegan where the children were born, was hoping for a girl to even up the family at two boys, two girls.

"She evened it up alright," Cermak said, "the hard way." There are three other Cermak children, Charlene, 16; Melvin, 15 and James, 8.

Mrs. Cermak can attest that children certainly do have different personalities. Seeing them grow up together is one of the best ways to notice it, she says.

"Joe jumps into everything," she noted. "He's full of life and shows it."

HIS OPPOSITE is Mary, who seems to try to figure things out before doing anything.

Sister Ann, though not as active as Joe, is a real "ham" and willing to show off for anybody, she added.

To sort of celebrate their birthday, Joe showed his activity to newsmen attending a party Friday by flipping the rubber band holding the party hats on his sisters, and eating all the cake.

The year has been just like that, the Cermaks said. And as the saying goes: "A lot of water has . . ."

Problems of Oil Wildcatters

Wildcatters are pressing a relentless search for oil on the African continent, says Petroleum Week, and some of the problems they face are deadly snakes, ferocious bees that attack on sight, lions and War II mines. So far, production has been modest, but the possibilities are termed enormous.

Making and using iron and steel products account for 7 per cent of all manufacturing jobs in the United States.

Antioch Student Solos At Lake Forest College

SOLOISTS for this annual presentation of the great oratorio are Junella Gustafson, Zion, and Valerie Robinson, Waukegan, sopranos; Edith Mayfield, Zion, and Stella Schrag, Ivanhoe, altos. Also Bernard Beem, Vern Edwards and Don LaBelle, Zion, tenors and Robert Morton, Libertyville, bass.

The public is invited to attend and a free will offering will be received.

Antioch Grade, HS Teachers Enthusiastic; Set Second Cooperation Meeting

So enthused were grade and high school teachers of math and science about coordinating their courses of instruction, that they plan to meet again Jan. 19 to iron out problems confronting them in their teaching.

Eighteen teachers from seven area schools met Monday afternoon to see if their programs needed coordinating. A single meeting was not enough and so they planned another gathering at the high school here.

THE TEACHERS were meeting in a result of more than a year's discussions between the high school and area grade school administrations. The schools are attempting to find a way to come up with a course of instruction that will be uniform of all schools feeding to the high school. The purpose is so that a student coming from the first grade in any school will receive the same lessons and be on a par, educationally, with any other student entering the high school.

Discussion leaders for the meeting were Mrs. Edna Becker, Antioch Grade School and John Gudgel, High School for mathematics; and William Seemann and Karl Ohlendorf for science.

OTHERS ATTENDING the meeting were: Don Cramer, William Seemann, Frank Denison, Elmo Edwards, Harrison Brown, John Gudgel, Robert Walther and W. K. Kirkman of the high school.

Also Karl Ohlendorf and Joseph Pleviak, Lake Villa School; James Bradley and John Hammond, B. J. Hooper school; Mrs. Vera Smith, Grass Lake School; Clifton Houghton, Oakland School; Mrs. Edna Becker and R. L. Fitzpatrick, Antioch Grade School; Donald BBehling and Mrs. Virginia Matson, Channel Lake School.

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love, even as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in His love.
—(St. John 15:10.)

The way to live a good, happy, useful life is clearly defined in the Bible. By following the commandments of Jesus, we may have Him as our ever-present, kindly and understanding Friend, and be strong and joyful in His abounding love and help.

American medical colleges had a record enrollment of 29,473 students in the 1957-58 academic year. Sixty of the 85 operating medical schools reported major construction projects, costing $47 million, in the planning, beginning, or completion stages.

Funds Needed For Building of Lighted Cross In So. Illinois

The long-time dream of rural mail carrier, Wayman Presley, to build a huge, lighted, non-denominational cross atop Bald Knob Mountain near Alto Pass, Ill., has taken an important step forward. The Bald Knob Christian Foundation, through its president, Warren Hastings, has announced that final approval has been given architect's drawings and that contracts had been given for preparation of construction blueprints.

Hastings said sufficient funds are now on hand to complete the base and steel framework and that this part of the cross will be built beginning next Easter. The task of raising funds to provide the outside covering of white porcelainized steel and floodlights still lies ahead, he went on.

IN 1949 MAILMAN Presley started raising money to purchase land on the mountaintop and formed the Foundation. A ten-member governing board from this group controls its financial affairs with Presley doing the fund raising.

Hastings said the next important step came in 1954 when Presley interested Mrs. Theodore Chapman, incoming president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in the Bald Knob Cross project. This contact resulted in Presley being featured on Ralph Edwards' "This Is Your Life" in the spring of 1955.

As a result of this, contributions from every state, in small amounts totaling nearly $100,000, were received at the Foundation's mailing address, The Cross, Cairo, Ill. It was anticipated that under Mrs. Chapman's leadership, substantial financial help would be received from the clubs. This failed to develop, however, on an overall basis although some clubs did contribute.

MAIL CARRIER Presley needed more money. He started distributing pigs to Southern Illinois farmers who fatten and sell them sending the proceeds to the cross building fund. As a result of his efforts during his spare time during the past two and a half years, checks for over 1,000 hogs have been received with 550 more to come in.

The members of the Foundation feel confident now that the cross is beginning to rise, additional contributions will be received. The lighted cross will be seen for many miles over mid-America and will be an inspiring symbol of the united faith that has made America great, Hastings said. A booklet describing available memorials is being prepared and will be mailed to anyone writing to The Cross, Cairo, Ill.

UI Income Up

University of Illinois income during 1957-58 was $77,096,538 and expenditures $74,085,046, according to the annual report issued by Herbert O. Farber, vice president and comptroller.

For the period ending June 30, 1958, income increased by more than $11 million, expenditures by nearly $9 million, and facilities increased by $14 million.

THE REPORT shows the university utilizing plant and equipment which cost $165,485,157, some of it dating back 90 years. The plant is located all over the state and includes three campuses, experiment fields and forests, airport, and other facilities.

University income included $46 million from state taxes, $11½ million from U. S. government, $4 million from student fees, $7½ million from auxiliary activities such as residence halls, and smaller sums from other sources.

Expenditures included as major items $42 million for instruction and research, $8½ million for statewide services and extension activities, and $7 million for auxiliary activities.

Delight for Little Girls-Display of Dolls, Dresses

A Christmas delight for children and grownups, too—miniature doll house furnishings and exquisite tiny dolls with a wonderful collection of period costumes dating back to the 1870's—is the December "Feature of the Month" at the Chicago Historical Society.

On display in the ground floor foyer at Clark St. and North Ave., the special exhibit is a representative selection from a fabulous collection of dolls, furniture and clothes bequeathed to the Society by a Chicagoan who started collecting the diminutive toys in her childhood. She continued the collection till her death in 1954 and the exhibit shows the transition in furnishings and clothes from 1870 to the 1950's.

DAINTY DOLLS measuring three to six inches tall have large wardrobes, including bridal gowns and empire style fashions made of the finest fabrics. Accessories range from a mink muff to real diamond stickpins and bracelets—every piece an example of tiny perfection. Furnishings, typical of the Victorian period, include delicate China dinner service, marble topped tables, and fireplace equipment, as well as a kerosene lamp that burns real fuel.

It was a tradition in the family of the owner of the collection, Miss Gretchen Johanna Schilling, to bring out the toys each Christmas and make annual additions to the collection. In appreciation of Miss Schilling's bequest, carried out by her brother, Paul Clarke Schilling, the Chicago Historical Society has chosen to present a selection of the dolls, clothes and furnishings as its own Christmas feature.

The Chicago Historical Society is open to the public on weekdays from 9:30 to 4:30 p.m. and on Sundays from 12:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Adults are admitted free except on Sunday and certain holidays when the charge is 25 cents. Children are always admitted free. The Chicago Historical Society will be closed on Christmas Day and New Year's Day.

3 Memorial Books Added to Library

Three books have been added to the shelves of the Antioch Township Library as memorial books.

For travelers, actual or armchair, Dore Ogrizek's "Germany" will be good reading. Brief chapters are given to a discussions of the history, art, literature and music of Germany, and then the reader is off on a travelog from the Rhineland through the various provinces. A wealth of fine pictures illustrate the book, which was given to the library in memory of Gregor Zellofer.

BERNT BALCHEN, aviator extraordinary, has been closely associated with Admiral Byrd's polar explorations for many years. He took a prominent part in the great New York-Paris air derby of 1927. World War II found work for his particular talents in Greenland on a challenging air assignment and with the leaders of the resistance in Nazi occupied Norway, his native land. "Come North With Me" is a fascinating account of his adventurous life which was placed in the library in memory of George Garland.

Farming, instead of being merely an occupation by which one earns a living, can easily become a complete and satisfying way of life. "Profitable Farm Management", by J. E. Hamilton and W. R. Bryant, discusses every aspect of farming; as a business, a career, and a way of life. The textbook arrangement of this book makes it ideal to consult for specific problems and for browsing. "Profitable Farm Management" was given to the library in memory of Bert Doolittle.

Social Security Checks a Great Economic Factor in Lake County

Persons drawing a large amount of money in social security assistance checks in the Antioch area are an economic factor which is larger than most persons imagine, Bernard Barnett, district manager of the Waukegan office of the social security administration says.

More than $800,000 a month is distributed to the residents in the county with a larger percentage coming to this area than to any other part of the county. The payments are made here because of the large amount of retired people moving to the resort area from Chicago.

YET IN SPITE of the many who receive social security payments, there are many questions about the benefits, Barnett found out last week when he presented an information program to members of the Senior Center for Senior Citizens at the Scout House.

"Most people are in doubt as to the qualifications for the benefits," Barnett said.

Last Meeting Of Area Oldsters

The meeting of Antioch's Senior Center for Senior Citizens, at which Bernard Barnett presented the latest information about the social security program, was the last to be held says Mrs. Thomas Pechousek, chairman of the Woman's Club sponsoring committee.

THE CLUB, designed to meet the needs of older folks—to give them an atmosphere in which they would be comfortable—had four meetings.

Although there probably is a greater percentage of elderly people in this area than any other part of the county, it was felt that interest did not warrant continuing the program, Mrs. Pechousek said.

Barnett said. He outlined the qualifications to questioners in the audience.

Barnett also explained a new disability program under which the Social Security Administration is giving funds. If a person is under 60 and becomes totally and permanently disabled, his social security records are "frozen" and he begins collecting checks at age 60—just as if he were retiring at 65 years. However, the agency's disability requirements are very rigid, Barnett said.

THE LAW specifies that if a person is disabled he must have no residual working capacity—the injury will lead to death or blindness. Determination of the disability is made by doctors at the state agency in Springfield or national in Baltimore—"not by $4,500 a year clerks," he added.

Benefits for those collecting social security payments will go up automatically on Jan. 1, Barnett said. The overall rates will be hiked 7 per cent and the new amounts will be added without filing for them, he added.

An example of the new rates is the maximum increasing from $108.50 per month to $116 under the new law. The minimum will increase from $30 to $33 per month. The last raise in the social security benefits was in 1954, Barnett noted.

Persons who could not attend the meeting and who desire more information should contact Barnett at his Waukegan office.

Life Expectancy Eased Off in 1957

NEW YORK—America's wage earners and their families registered a slight decline in average length of life last year—the first decline since 1943—according to insurance company statisticians.

Average length of life among millions of industrial policyholders was 70.0 years in 1957, or 0.2 years below the all-time high established in 1956.

THIS SLIGHT decline, it is pointed out, resulted from the widespread outbreak of Asian influenza during the last quarter of the year. Even with this unfavorable development, the average length of life of these insured persons in 1957 was 3½ years greater than in 1947 and 23½ years above that for 1909.

The gains of the past decade have benefited each group among these policyholders, including those well into adult life. Among all policyholders at age 20, the average future lifetime has been extended 2.6 years since 1947. Even at age 40 the increased expectation of life exceeds two years; currently, the average future lifetime at this age is close to 34 years.

Study Discloses Lip Reading Facts

LOS ANGELES—There is no such thing as lip reading—Modern Languages, despite a certain degree of semantic sophistication, are still basically "sign" languages. . . . A smile, an arched eyebrow or a mobile face conveys as much as a spoken word.

These are conclusions reached in a study of so-called lip reading at University of California.

A GROUP of UCLA students, untrained in lip reading and with normal hearing was shown special silent films in which an actor repeated simple interrogative and declarative sentences under a variety of conditions. In one film all but the lips were masked with a plastic screen, simulating the process of concentrating on a given facial area. In other films, the portion of the actor seen was increased to half the face, finally to full face and torso to the waist. Subjects were asked to write down what they thought the actor said.

It was found that it was almost impossible to communicate information alone. More information was communicated as the amount of the face and body seen increased.

2 Local Bowlers To Test Skills Sunday Against Chicago Champ

How good are Antioch's top bowlers?

Fans of the keg sport will see next Sunday at 1 p. m. at the Antioch Bowl Lanes when two of the top bowlers in the area tackle Adolph Carlson, former world champion and holder of state and Chicago city ABC titles.

HE WILL BOWL a three-game match against Joe Sterbenz, Jr., who had a 300 game at the beginning of the season, and against Marv Shepard who brings his 205 average to the contest.

Both Antioch bowlers are members of the Antioch Major League which rolls Friday nights at the Antioch Bowl.

The public is invited to watch the matches. There is no admission charge.

The Sunday match is only a tune-up for more bowling shows being arranged by Jack Sampayo, owner of the alleys. He especially is pointing to a Jan. 4 match between Johnny King or Al Lubanski versus more local talent. And in the spring, a grand tournament of local keggers will be rolled with the winner taking a prize of about $100.

Lack Of Money Still A Worry Of Local Amateur Cage Team

Home Game Monday May Spell Success, Failure Of Scouts

Still plagued by money worries, Antioch's Scouts of the amateur McHenry County Basketball League will take on a mediocre Palatine team at Palatine tonight. The game will be in preparation for the first home game in almost a month next Monday night.

Coach Frank Balisteri's demoralized cagers who still rank near the top in the league, will meet Cary in what should be a fast game. Cary has not been a power this year but with the stop-and-go type of ball played in the league, they could outdistance the Scouts.

THE LOCALS will be playing each game wondering if the next one will have to be cancelled due to lack of funds. Pledges from area businessmen have fallen short and the seven home games may run the team into a deficit. It costs about $18 to open the doors for a home game and the team does not have the funds to meet it anymore.

The Antioch team is the only team in the league which has financial troubles, Balisteri said.

Admission to Scout games is free but usually a hat is passed during the game for fans to contribute to the team's financial well-being. Of late, fans have been conspicuous by their absence.

Play in the league is very fast and compares with some college ball. Most players are graduates of the Antioch High School and have starred in recent years.

Salem Rips Big Foot By 58-38 Count

Salem Central made notice that the Falcons are a team to be feared in the Southeastern Conference.

A junior studded varsity lineup roared off to a commanding lead over Big Foot of Walworth and coasted to a 58-38 victory. The issue was never in doubt after the first two minutes.

DICK NEU, playing his first time as a regular, came up with 13 points and third high scorer. He followed star Ron Yates with 16 points and Len Krawczyk with 14 counters. All are juniors.

As a team, the Falcons put together a stone defense forcing the Big Foot players to shoot from outside. If they missed, which they did 74 per cent of the time, Krawczyk or Neu were there to rebound.

It was such an unexpected rout and so pleased Coach Dorm Grams, that he drilled the Falcons on fundamentals and passing in preparation for the Union Grove game Tuesday night.

The win, third in four starts for the Salem crew, is the second in conference play. The single loss also has occurred in the conference.

SOMEBODY DO SOMETHING. It appears every member of the Antioch cage team expected someone else to stop Grayslake's Tom Lombard (24) from making another goal. He and Bill Reidel (34) pushed the Sequoits all over in making a rout of Friday's game. The Antiochs looking on here are Paul Magiera (40), Don Pyles (51), Jerry Dahman (43) and Bob Martin (52).

Antioch Still Winless, Teamwork Lacking

2 Conference Games This Weekend Give Squad Real Test

Lonesome Larry Leon still is looking for his first victory of the year and trying to impress upon his Antioch Sequoits the necessity of solid team play. Two week-end losses did nothing for the record but put valuable game experience under the belts of his youthful cagers.

The team goes to Elmhurst Friday for its second conference game and returns home Saturday night for a tiff with Round Lake. Both teams have a size advantage over the locals but Leon feels his charges can win them both. Neither team is expected to have gigantic success this year.

ELA-VERNON'S Bears has a veteran team which should really test the Sequoits after last Saturday's non-conference "moral victory" losing effort against North Chicago.

"I haven't seen either team play this year but I know both have improved," he said.

In last Friday's game, mental lapses on the part of the Antiochs were attributed to being their downfall. Grayslake's Rams soundly thumped the Sequoits 68-46.

HOWEVER PAUL Magiera and Don Pyles for Antioch contributed

10 points to a losing cause giving Leon some consolation. Following in scoring order were Bob Martin with 9 points and Jerry Dahman with seven. However, these individual performances by the Antioch players is overshadowed by an 18 point performance by the Ram's Bill Reidel.

In the department of game statistics, the team performance of the locals was not as bad as the final score. Antioch was nearly even in rebounding and outstanding in free throws. But field goal shooting was less than desirable.

SATURDAY NIGHT the Indians met North Chicago and came away with what Leon terms a "moral vic-

Why New Year's Vows

The custom of making New Year's resolutions can be traced to a peacock. The colorful bird was a favorite Christmas dish in early England, according to research experts with The World Book Encyclopedia. It was customary for knights to take the "vow of the peacock" by making their pledge for the new year with their right hand on the peacock.

The first four-year athletic coaching course was started at University of Illinois in 1919.

Florida Shopping Center Completed By Former Antioch Resident

A former Antioch resident has completed construction of a shopping center in Sarasota, Fla., the first major building to be started in the city in several years.

He is Lester Nixon, who said this 12-story structure is only the first of additional investments to be made in the area. Nixon graduated from Antioch Township High School about 25 years ago and has lived in Sarasota for about 12 years.

ONE OF THE businesses in the $250,000 shopping center will be occupied by Nixon himself. A professional magician, his "Nix on Tris" shop will be his center of operations for invention of additional tricks which have won him national acclaim at magicians' conventions.

Nixon was in the car parking business in Chicago before his move to Florida.

Housewives Serve 400 Million Cans Yearly: Speaker

American housewives open and serve about 400 million cans and jars of canned foods every week and they have more than 1,000 different items to choose from. American farmers are paid more than $1 billion annually by canners for the fresh products they put up for the public.

These facts and other statistics demonstrating the economic importance of canned foods were recited by Norman Sorensen, chairman of the board of Country Gardens, Inc., Milwaukee, and vice-president of the National Canners Assn.

SINCE CANNING crops are grown under contract, they insure the farmer a market for his entire production at a price agreed upon before his crop is even planted. The canning industry thus plays an important role in helping farmers attain economic stability," he stated. He showed that approximately half of the U. S. acreage of vegetables and one-fifth of the fruit production is used for processing; about 4/5 of all tomatoes and beets; 2/3 of the sweet corn; and about one-half of the asparagus.

Many Drivers Want Same Auto Plates

Reassignments of the same automobile license numbers for 1959 has risen to almost 400,000, the secretary of state has announced. The figure is up almost 33 per cent over last year.

Requests for the same number must be received before Nov. 1.

The increase in reassignments was noted greatest in the higher five-digit numbers where the rise was from 85 percent to almost 90 percent.

ONLY ABOUT 250 numbers from 1 to 10,000 became available to persons other than those who had the numbers last year, the secretary said. There were almost 3,000 requests for numbers in this range.

Reasons given for special numbers included requests to match addresses, telephone numbers, birthdates, wedding dates, poker combinations, numbers ending in three zeros, repeats (531-531), reverses (531-135) and others having special significance to persons seeking them, the secretary said.

'Orderly Progress' for Lindenhurst Seen as Second Birthday Noted

By Helen Graves

Lindenhurst, now two years old, passed its anniversary last week with a planning commission report preparing for a population of at least 5,000 in 10 years. Plans all will be made on those estimates.

One of the immediate problems facing the village now is a uniform street numbering system which the planning commission is attacking.

LINDENHURST NOW is operating in the black—solidly—after receipt of its first tax money after the first business has been established. The business, Thor's Shell Station on Grand Ave., is at a spot where next year a shopping center will rise with its 300-car parking lot.

A fully manned police force with 12 officers and a patrol car, paid for, and plenty of equipment make the village one of the leaders in the modern parade of urbanized area in the Lake County family of incorporated villages.

LOOKING BACK, the village fathers, headed by President Robert Randall, note that at its incorporation the population was 700 and an interim census taken in May, 1958, showed 916. Estimates at the second anniversary were over 1000.

Some of the tremendous growth pains have been alleviated by the school district last September with opening of the new B. J. Hooper grade school.

With good planning and continued cooperation of the residents, the wide open areas in the village will fill up fast and orderly, the board of trustees feel. Making up the board are Lowell Graves, Mrs. Rhonda Sanders, John Slove, Graig Henderson, Ted Brendel, and Paul Hunt. The newly appointed village clerk is Mrs. Raelene Gibbon.

THREE SPOTS on the board are up for re-election next April and already announced as not running is Mrs. Sanders, only woman on the board. Terms of Graves and Slove also will be expired.

For village business, the village hall is located next to the American Legion club with office hours Monday and Wednesday, 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. Phone number is Eliot 6-5154. The Board of Trustees in noting the second birthday, reminded all residents that village business is officially acted upon on the second Monday of every month at the village hall. Residents are urged to attend and see how their government is operated.

Lindenhurst Cubs Prepare Yule Tree Sale Saturday

Cub Scouts of Lindenhurst's Pack 84 will have all trees in stock and prepared to sell them beginning Dec. 13 to village residents for a first annual fund raising event. The boys will also collect and dispose of the trees after Christmas.

The sale will be held at the Lindenhurst Men's Clubhouse. The Men's Club is furnishing the grounds, parking space and utilities, according to Cubmaster Ted Flanagan. The cub scouts have given the first tree to the Men's Club for display in the building, Flanagan said. The Men's Club sponsors the cub pack.

Flags of 3 Countries Have Waved Over Our Lakes Area

Ben Franklin Was On Commission To Govern Land

Editor's Note: This is the third of a six part series telling the history of the lakes region. It has been compiled by an Antioch resident especially for readers of the Antioch News.

(By Jacqueline Horton)

Besides Indian war banners, flags of two other nations waved over Lake and Kenosha counties before the American flag was planted here to stay. And Benjamin Franklin once ruled this part of the country. The French explorers were the first Europeans to visit the "Country of the Illinois," coming by way of Canada in the early 1600's. By token of their missions, trading posts and early settlements through which they quickly made steadfast friends with the Indians, they and their successors held possession for nearly a century which was called "New France."

THE LAND never had any definite boundaries but was understood by the French, to include everything from the valley of the St. Lawrence, to the northern boundaries of the British colonies on the Atlantic coast. Also the whole Great Lakes region as well as the valley of the Mississippi from the headwaters of the Ohio west to the Pacific Ocean and south to the Gulf of Mexico.

England and Spain also were actively ambitious in acquiring possessions in the rich new world and contested France's claims vigorously. This promulgated the long and bitter struggle known as the French and Indian wars which mark the history of America's mid-continent prior to the real settlement of the land.

That the French should have reluctantly yielded up so magnificent a domain is natural. And yet they did this, by the treaty of 1763 after their defeat by the British at Quebec, and surrendered the region east of the Mississippi (except a small district near the mouth of that river) to England, and the remainder to Spain.

THUS THE "Illinois Country" fell into the hands of the British with the total population of the French villages in Illinois at the time of their transfer estimated at about 1600—gathered mainly about Kaskaskia and Cahokia.

The first official notice taken of the Illinois "Country" by the Continental Congress was in 1775 when that body adopted an act creating three Indian Departments—Northern, Middle and Southern. Our region was assigned to the second with Benjamin Franklin and James Wilson of Pennsylvania and Patrick Henry of Virginia as commissioners.

More attention was given to the eastern colonies after the Declaration of Independence, but the frontiersmen of Virginia were watchful of an opportunity to deliver a blow to the government of King George in a quarter where it was least expected and where it was destined to have an immense effect upon the future of the new nation as well as that of the American continent.

THIS OPPORTUNITY came in 1777 when young Col. George Rogers Clark of Virginia conceived the idea of marching upon the settlements in the Mississippi valley and seizing them for the government of Virginia. The success of this remarkable campaign accomplished with few men and little equipment, is well known for its importance in the annals of history.

At the close of the Revolution, public sentiment demanded that all of the states relinquish claims to the unoccupied territory and with the rest, Virginia ceded all this vast region to the general government. The famous Ordinance of 1787 named the country the Northwest Territory and the name of Illinois disappeared.

Then in 1800, by act of Congress, the Northwest Territory was divided into Ohio and Indiana territories. During his administration as first territorial governor, William Henry Harrison concluded 13 treaties with the Indians, six of them relating to the cession of lands in Illinois.

IN 1809, Indiana was divided and the name of Illinois revived and given to the portion west of the Wabash River with Kaskaskia as its capital. The population was judged less than 11,000. It was ruled by a governor and judges, constituting the legislature. Ninian Edwards of Kentucky was the first governor. Nathaniel Pope was secretary and Jesse B. Thomas, William Sprigg and Alexander Stuart the judges.

At this time there were not known to have been more than two Americans among the French-Canadian settlements in the entire territory. Lake and Kenosha counties lay quiet, inhabited only by the Indians, except for such stray hunters and trappers as occasionally visited it. But in the immediate years following, the history of Illinois as a separate political division began. Changes occurred in rapid succession with the influx of people seeking homes in the new land, the creating of new counties and the establishment of new towns.

THE YEAR 1812 saw the second war with England with Illinois' part in it spent chiefly in dealing with the large Indian population within its borders. Expeditions were made against the Indians at various places including that of the Fort Dearborn Massacre of 1812 at what is now Chicago. Ensuing years saw the many sessions and treaties

Spinach for Christmas

The Armenians eat boiled spinach on Christmas Eve, according to The World Book Encyclopedia, because they believe Mary ate the vegetable the night before Christ was born.

made by which the Indians were inexorably thrust from their ancestral lands until in 1815, councils resulted in a treaty of peace with the principal Northwestern tribes which finally ended the conflict.

BY AN ACT of Congress in 1812 the Territory of Illinois was raised to second grade, or empowered to elect its own legislature. In 1818 the Bank of Illinois was established at Shawneetown.

More counties were organized until there were 15 in 1818, the year in which Illinois was admitted to statehood.

The lands of Lake county at this time were but an obscure part and under jurisdiction of what was then Crawford County. However the inhabitants of this neck of the woods doubtless gave not the slightest heed, being every one of them of the Indian nation.

Next week: The State Line between Illinois and Wisconsin.

Motor Club Lists Ways to Solve Starting Problems

Car starting problems go hand in hand with winter weather for many motorists.

The Chicago Motor Club says the best assurance for prompt starting is to make certain your car is thoroughly conditioned for winter driving. The club also offers the following suggestions:

1. Don't grind your starter. Allow for 30 to 60 second rest periods for the battery between starting tries. After your car starts, warm up the motor by letting it idle for several minutes. Never race a cold motor.
2. Don't pump the accelerator when the starter is engaged. This will flood your engine and cause heavy battery strain. But if you flood your engine, allow several minutes to elapse before another starting attempt.
3. To keep your gas line from freezing, add 8 ounces of grain alcohol or approved commercial equivalent to every other full tank of gasoline.
4. When standing still in traffic, put car in neutral and step on the accelerator to keep your battery from discharging.

Sirloin from the English

An English king with a sense of humor gave us the name for sirloin steak. The World Book Encyclopedia's research department says Charles II once compared his affection for his friends gathered at a Christmas dinner to his fondness for a loin of good beef. Touching the roast with his sword, he declared, "I knight thee Sir Loin."

Snowstorms Soon May Become Part of Folklore — Like Raindance

Tornadoes and snowstorms like the ones that barreled through the plains last week may be as much a part of folklore as the Indian rain dance in the world of tomorrow.

Robert Zeleny, science editor of The World Book Encyclopedia, says man may take the weather into his own hands some day, and perhaps even determine the climate he will live in.

HERE ARE SOME of the ideas that may take the guesswork, and the hazards, out of the weather.

The weatherman of the future will bring rain clouds to drought areas, when nature abandons the farmer. Man-made rain will put out forest fires and replenish water supplies.

Dangerous clouds will be choked off, putting an end to such terrors as tornadoes and hurricanes. Controlled rainfall will prevent floods and soil erosion. And chemical mist will be used to dispel fog over airfields.

DREAMING OF A white Christmas won't be just a song, for farmers will sprinkle dye over the ground to absorb sunlight and speed the melting of snow to advance the planting season.

Rain-makers have been in business since 1946, when a General Electric scientist breathed into a freezer, added dry ice to chill at water vapor, and created a miniature snowstorm.

Scientists now can produce rain and snow, and even change a drizzle into a downpour by this process of "seeding" clouds with dry ice.

BUT CHANGING the climate—or the pattern of temperature, wind, rainfall and sunshine—is a more tricky problem, especially since the changes in one part of the world might affect the weather in another area.

Man has no power over the amount of energy from the sun that falls on the earth, which ultimately controls weather and climate. But he might be able to control the amount of solar energy that the earth retains.

An AMBITIOUS weatherman might spread microscopic layers of colored matter over Antarctica to capture the sun's rays and transform the frozen continent into rich farmland.

While man tinkers with nature, traveling forecasters in the form of unmanned satellites will circle the globe. They will pick up the information with a television camera and relay it to earth.

You won't be able to put the blame on the weatherman if you get caught with your umbrella down. The human forecaster will just set a dial and let an electronic computer worry about what kind of a day it will be.

Find Many Relics Of Past In Reservoir Building

WASHINGTON—More than 9,000 archeological sites—locations of Indian and frontier settlements—have been found in the past 12 years in areas scheduled to be flooded or otherwise obliterated in the present reservoir building program.

This was reported by an independent group serving in an advisory capacity for the Inter-Agency Archeological Salvage Program which is being coordinated by the Smithsonian Institution and the National Park Service.

THE SITES ARE scattered over 310 reservoir areas in 42 states. They constitute remains of camps, villages, burial mounds and other cemeteries, trails, quarries, and caves used by Indians and trading posts, forts, pioneer cabins, and settlements of white frontiersmen.

Many of the 9,000 sites do not merit excavation, says the report. Those that do, if the work was carried out, "would provide a record of man's achievements in North America over a period ranging from 10,000 to less than 100 years ago."

EXCAVATIONS HAVE been started to date in 69 of the reservoir areas located in 31 states. From these, and from the surveys which preceded them, have come more than 4,000,000 archeological specimens. These consist largely of arrowheads, pottery, stone and bone tools, stone ornaments, basketry, metal tools and glass objects. They will be preserved as museum exhibit pieces and study collections at the U. S. National Museum and at state and local museums and research centers.

ECONOMY TV TOPICS

(By Herold "Pete" Peterson)

IN AT BOTH EARS

Lots of people wonder about Hi-Fi at ECONOMY TV, wanting to know what it means. Actually, hi-fi means high fidelity, a reproduction of sound in a way that will precisely reproduce the original source.

To come close to understanding what this sound is like place a radio on the opposite side of the room facing your television set. Of course, you must have a program that is broadcasting on both radio and TV. Tune them to the same pitch and you will be surprised at the tone improvement.

Better yet, come into our store on Rte. 173, 1 mile west of Antioch and hear some of the latest hi-fi equipment. You'll be amazed at the enjoyment you can receive from hearing your favorite singers and orchestras by way of high fidelity.
